

Name: _____
Current Event Number: _____

Choose an article from the newspaper of social significance (no sports, gossip, opinion pieces, or sensational crime). Read and highlight the main points of the article. Record those main points from the article in the categories below using complete sentences when possible (not every category will always be used). On the back of this paper, write a clear paragraph summary of the article using your own words. The article must be stapled to this form.

Title, author, and source of article:

Who or what is the article about?

Where did the event take place?

What happened?

When did it happen?

How or why did it happen?

Describe your reaction to the article (how you feel about what happened):

Name: _____
Current Event Number: _____

Choose an article from the newspaper of social significance (no sports, gossip, opinion pieces, or sensational crime). Read and highlight the main points of the article. Record those main points from the article in the categories below using complete sentences when possible (not every category will always be used). On the back of this paper, write a clear paragraph summary of the article using your own words. The article must be stapled to this form.

Title, author, and source of article:

Who or what is the article about?

Where did the event take place?

What happened?

When did it happen?

How or why did it happen?

Describe your reaction to the article (how you feel about what happened):